DARK SKIES

As the year draws to a close, Dark Skies brings together a remarkable group of artists whose works explore solitude, resilience, and the quietly surreal moments that colour modern life. From mountain peaks to domestic interiors, the exhibition traces the edges of stillness and introspection through painting and editioned works.

Highlights include Peter Doig's dreamlike alpine scenes, Katherine Bradford's luminous swimmers, and Billy Childish's expressive waterscapes. Through humour, reflection, and abstraction, each artist gestures toward renewal, whether in David Shrigley's deadpan optimism, Banksy's satire, or Harland Miller's irony.

Please note that each artwork is an integral part of the exhibition. Collection or shipping of purchased items will be scheduled at the beginning of February 2026 unless otherwise agreed.
